Re: United States v. Joseph Mazella
Assigned Docket No. 11 CR 300 (CBA)

Dear Chief Judge Amon:

I respectfully submit the attached proposed order authorizing CJA compensation for Tim Griffith, the real estate appraiser appointed by the Court on December 8, 2011 to assist the defense in trial preparation and to provide trial expert testimony in the Mazella case. Tim performed valuable work, in assisting my trial preparation. He worked diligently and was a tremendous help to our defense case, despite the final result.

Tim billed for a total of 174 hours for pretrial services at $75/hour as approved by Your Honor in the Dec. 8, 2011 authorization order, for a total of $13,050. His initial authorization was for 50 hours, (A copy of the original order is enclosed for convenience). I had instructed him to perform additional appraisal work, including an expert's summary and full appraisals as to properties that were central to the trial issues. I also asked Tim to be present for trial testimony and narrowed the time period in which he needed to be physically present in order to keep the trial flowing smoothly. It is my fault for not asking for additional authorized hours for Tim. It certainly is not his fault that I failed to get additional CJA payment authorization for his necessary services. But in my defense, I was burning the midnight oil on several fronts as the trial date drew near.

It should be noted that there was an under budget $7,600 for pretrial expert services (in Leah Savitt's billings for only half of her authorized hours). That would cover an additional 101 hours of Tim's pretrial hours, for a total covered of 151 of his 174 hours – leaving a smaller over budget 23 hours @$75 or just $1,725 over budget for Tim's compensation, if measured by the budget's pretrial expert services category.

In his final voucher, Tim asked for trial services compensation at the authorized rate of $125/hour, plus parking expenses in the amount of $2,574.75. I should note that other appraisers asked for between $250 to $300/hour for their services, and they weren't even licensed in both NYS and NJ (where the subject properties are located), as Tim is.

I therefore respectfully ask Your Honor to approve Tim's well-deserved compensation authorization. Nearly a half year after Tim completed his services admirably, he is still waiting for his pay check. To the extent that I did not seek prior authorization, I plead guilty with an explanation. But Tim should not be collaterally damaged as a result.

I thank Your Honor for your courtesy and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
